Dear Members and Friends of Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Marlborough, MA,

Grace & Peace to you in Christ Jesus our Lord!

HTAC = Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Marlborough, MA (our church family in French Hill and beyond)

ANiC = Anglican Network in Canada (our diocese)

ACNA = The Province of the Anglican Church in North America (our province)

We will soon have updated worship booklets at HTAC to be used on Sundays and for worship during the week. They will be similar to our present worship booklets. However, there are a few significant differences. As your priest and pastor, I wish to highlight a few of them for you (let us prepare together):

- We have typically begun the Mass by chanting, "In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen". We will now - from this day forward - conform more fully to the "Opening Acclamation" prescribed by our Province in our liturgy, "Blessed be God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit...". While these words are not part of the post-English Reformation Prayer Book tradition, they are both patristic and ecumenical. They are a modern paraphrase of the most ancient Christian liturgies known to us today, especially those found in the ancient Christian east. The wondrous depth and ineffable wealth of these ancient liturgical words only serve to augment our present day worship. These words proclaim: 1) The Name of God as Trinity (i.e., one God in three distinct Persons), 2) God's eternal kingdom and 3) Our participation in God and his kingdom through worship (i.e., gathering, Word, Sacrament and going forth in the Name of Jesus into the world).
- We will now have two options for, "The Summary of Law". The first as written in the 1928 (American) Book of Common Prayer and the second as written in the 1962 (Canadian) Book of Common Prayer. While very similar, they employ different scriptural references. This addition has the permission of our Diocesan Bishop, The Right Reverend Charles "Charlie" F. Masters.
- We will continue to have our Choir sing the "Kyrie" in Greek (a most ancient tradition of the patristic/historic Church) and the "Agnus Dei" in Latin. However, once a month these prayers are/will be offered in English.
- In addition to the above bullet point, the new Rites of the ACNA call for the ancient, "Mystery of Faith," to be sung or said in one of the Eucharistic Prayers (i.e., "Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.") and allow for it, as an option, in any of the eucharistic prayers used in the local congregation. When the "Kyrie" is sung in Greek and the "Agnus Dei" in Latin, we will sing the, "Mystery of Faith," in English. Once a month, when the "Kyrie" and the "Agnus Dei" are sung in English, the "Mystery of Faith" will be omitted.
- There are two options allowed for the, "Prayers of the People" at HTAC. The second option will be incorporated into our new worship booklets and will no longer be an insert within the bulletin. Monica will be happy! 😊
- There will be three options for the Eucharistic Prayer (please note: all three have the approval of the Province and our Diocesan Bishop). The first is the "Standard Text" (based on the 1928 American BCP); the second is known as the, "Ancient Text" (based on the ancient rites of the historic Catholic Church, to which we, as orthodox Anglicans, fully belong); and the third is based on the "1962 (Canadian) BCP". These Eucharistic Prayers connect us with the Celebration of the Holy Eucharist, i.e., the holy Mass, in every age of the Church from the time of Christ's first coming and his holy Apostles to the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ at the end of time.

Continued...

- THE BIGGEST CHANGE: A person worshipping at HTAC will notice that the new worship booklets are both in English and Spanish. We hope to offer the Mass in Spanish VERY soon. Fr. Isaac and Den. John will be launching a new church plant out of HTAC to our Spanish speaking neighbors in French Hill and beyond. Please pray for this very important mission of our church!
- The "Agnus Dei," whether sung by the HTAC Choir in Latin (as on most Sundays) or sung in English (once a month by all), will follow, "The Prayer of Humble Access" (perhaps the most beautiful prayer of the Post-English Reformation Prayer Book tradition).
- There are other changes, but the above serves as a basic introduction to these changes. If you have any questions, etc, please call Fr. Michael at 508-330-2179.

Blessings Friends!

I sincerely look forward to worshipping our God with you - it is a joy above all other things!
Fr. Michael+

The Collect for Holy Cross Day (September 14)

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ was lifted high upon the cross that he might draw the whole world unto himself: Mercifully grant that we, who glory in the mystery of our redemption, may have grace to take up our cross and follow him; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

“PARTICIPATION”

Having been a church musician for about forty (yes, 40!) years, I can say without fear of contradiction that few issues in a parish stir up more controversy than the musical portions of the service. This is not wrong, of course; there is nothing that we do that is more important than ensuring that the worship we offer to God at every service – especially on Sunday – is the best that we can offer. We don’t always succeed, but God loves us anyway for the effort. And we are right to assign high priority to the musical aspects of liturgy being the best it can be.

One of the most misunderstood aspects of worship, in my opinion, is the concept of “participation”. When Archbishop Cranmer set out to transform the Roman Catholic Church in England to the Church of England, he was firm about services being conducted in a language “understood” of the people. Obviously that greatly enhanced the participation of the congregation in the service and their comprehension of what was being said and done during the service. It took our Roman Catholic brethren about 400 years to figure out that Cranmer’s idea was right. Thus, at the Second Vatican Council, tremendous reforms were undertaken, resulting in the liturgy being performed in the native language of the particular congregation. Along with that change came new music and new approaches to congregational participation in the liturgy, especially the music.

Again in my opinion, the Second Vatican Council got it right when it set forth norms and principles regarding music in liturgy. Unfortunately, most Roman Catholic parishes in the United States threw out the baby with the bath water, completely ignoring those norms and principles, for the most part. Other denominations – including Anglicans – tended to follow their lead, resulting in misunderstanding about the roles of the various ministers in liturgy, especially the musicians, and poor quality music becoming regrettably common.

The great Christian apologist C. S. Lewis was not fond of church music; I don’t know why, but he was not opposed to it, nor was he an advocate of any particular style, so far as I know. You can read some of what he had to say at this internet link: <http://worshipandchurchmusic.com/cslewis.html>. Lewis makes the point that what matters is the intention of the participants, which must always be to glorify God and bring others to Him.

I have used the words “participate” and “participation” several times in the previous paragraphs. So what do they mean? No two people will have the exact same definition, and that’s as it should be, too. What the Second Vatican Council and Lewis both emphasize is that participation should be full, conscious and active. That does NOT mean that everybody says or sings everything; that is not what “active” means. Every person present at a liturgy has a distinct role to play in the mystery being celebrated, and no role is more important than any other; effective and beautiful worship comes into being when all present understand and perform their role.

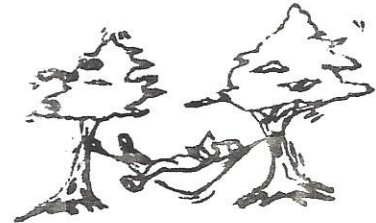

“Active” means – as Lewis says – engaging the mind as well as the body (sight, sound, smell, and touch). We are actively participating when we listen to a sermon and think about what the preacher said. We are actively participating when we sing a hymn or psalm refrain. We are actively participating when we listen to the choir sing an anthem or some other special musical work, or the organist play a solo. As Lewis said: “When [the intention] succeeds, I think the performers are the most enviable of men; privileged while mortals to honor God like angels and, for a few golden moments, to see spirit and flesh, delight and labour, skill and worship, the natural and the supernatural, all fused into that unity they would have had before the Fall.”

At Holy Trinity, we place great emphasis on doing the liturgy correctly so far as we are able, and that is how it should be. That means that our choir sings independently perhaps more than in other parishes. We do so in order to preserve our connection to the historical church – to put it another way, we resist throwing out the baby with the bath water. We cherish the past while looking forward with thanksgiving to what God has in store for us in the future. That means, also, that our choir endeavors to learn and share with the congregation the great musical works of the past as well as more modern expressions of our faith. Our choir sings music from the Renaissance up to and including living composers, all of whom have something to say to us if our hearts are open to it. We are actively participating not only when we perform music, but when we listen to it, too.

Continued...

I circle back to the Second Vatican Council. We owe no allegiance to the Roman Catholic church, of course, but apostolic succession means, I believe, that we should remember our historical connection with it and learn from them, just as they learn from us (even though it took them 400 years or so to do so – God’s time, not ours). Here is a link to the Second Vatican Council’s Instruction on Music in the Liturgy, written in 1967. http://www.vatican.va/archive/hist_councils/ii_vatican_council/documents/vatii_instr_19670305_musicam-sacram_en.html. Take a few minutes to read it, think about it, and then feel free to talk to me about it, if you wish.

Then pray for me, a sinner.
Pax vobiscum,
David Baker

YOUNG LIFE CAMP

On August 11, eleven middle-schoolers from the Greater Marlborough area, including some from Holy Trinity, will board a bus with their leaders and head west to Young Life’s Camp Saranac in New York State.

Scholarships are vital to these young people who wish to attend Young Life camp. Several people in our congregation and others in the area, unaffiliated with Holy Trinity, have generously contributed funds so that no one is turned away for lack of funds (camp costs $500.pp). In particular, we applied for and have received an amount equivalent to one full scholarship from The Bishop Donald and Trudy Harvey Legacy Trust. We are most grateful for this generous gift.

JUNE'S TABLE

June's Table is now open the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 5th Saturday of each month! Holy Trinity continues to serve the meal the first and third Saturday. Students from AMSA (Advanced Math and Science Academy), in Marlborough, began serving the second Saturday on May 12; and the Rotary Club began the fifth Saturday on June 30. We are still prayerfully looking for a group to fill the 4th Saturday, to enable us to feed the needy in our community EVERY Saturday. Thanks be to God! Stay tuned....

There are many opportunities to participate in June's Table. In August, Holy Trinity will be serving on 8/4 and 8/18; in September, 9/1 and 9/15. Please sign up to purchase or prepare food and/or help with setting-up, serving, and/or cleaning-up. We begin preparations at 4:00 pm, and serve the meal from 5-6 pm, with clean-up following. We have a great time - come and see!!

If you have any questions, or would like to help, please contact Emily Morse, 978-808-8608, or Deacon Suzy Kenyon, 508-654-4497. Thanks for your prayers for this mission, and for your help!

YARD SALE

Several people have inquired about our next Yard Sale. This is a wonderful time of fellowship and a much-needed fund raising opportunity. However, we need a leader – or leaders – for this endeavor. If you would like to discuss this opportunity, please contact Fr. Michael or Lynne Krebs. There will be plenty of people willing to assist. Thank you!

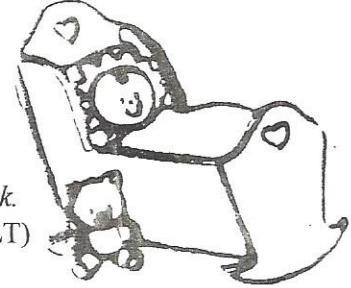

CONTEMPORARY CHRISTIAN MUSIC

We are blessed to have Judi Pinkerton offer Contemporary Christian Music prior to the Mass once a month. Those people who particularly appreciate CCM can attend at 9:30 on those Sundays and have their spirits lifted and enriched by such music in preparation for the Mass at 10:00 a.m. Judi will be with us on August 5 and September 23. Please welcome Judi and thank her for her willingness to serve the Lord through her gift of music.

ANGLICANS FOR LIFE

"You saw me before I was born. Every day of my life was recorded in Your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed" (Psalm 139:16, NLT)

Playpen for donations: A playpen is located in the Fellowship Hall for donations of baby items, t-shirts, diapers, clothing sizes 0-3 months through 18 months, etc. Items collected are given to Birthright of Marlborough and First Concern of Clinton. We were also able to give some items to neighborhood mothers who attended our Summer Lunch Program. This was a nice opportunity to reach out to our neighbors.

The Baby Bottle Campaign: Congratulations to everyone who returned the Baby Bottles benefiting First Concern of Clinton. A big thank you to all!

Anglicans for Life is an international Pro-Life Ministry within the Anglican Communion, upholding and proclaiming the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Our local Chapter seeks to raise awareness regarding alternatives to abortion...Let us help you! If you are being called to help with this vital ministry, or if you would like to have information on how we can help, please speak to our co-Coordiators Kathleen Demers (508-624-7642) and Marjorie Franko (978-369-8192). VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL – A GREAT SUCCESS!

This past week we held another wonderful VBS, together with our friends from First United Methodist Church. The children all seemed to enjoy and learn from the experience of Rolling River Rampage. I believe the adults and Teen Helpers also found this a joyful time. Many, many thanks to everyone who helped and supported VBS – donating supplies or money; praying; teaching; working the registration table; preparing snacks; etc, etc...

During the week, the students heard Bible stories, learned songs (thanks to Sarah McKinnon and Payton Rogers for their hard work and enthusiasm), created crafts and outreach projects; enjoyed recreation activities (bravo Brian and Logan who organized and led the games so well) and generally had a wonderful time. On Wednesday we enjoyed a visit from Animal Adventures of Bolton with their live animals, and on Thursday an educator from Mass Wildlife gave a presentation on rivers and the animals that inhabit them. Friday afternoon the children were thrilled with the water slide in the courtyard (for which we had good weather!) And then, Friday evening we had a great Celebration for parents and friends with a slide show of the week, presentation of some of our skits, and all the students dancing and singing the songs learned during the week.

I am happy to say many parents and students left saying they are looking forward to next year!

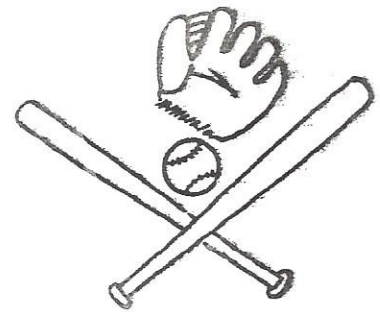

Thanks again to all,
Monica Walker

You are invited to contribute to the Food Pantry on any given Sunday.

Please place your offering in the box provided in the Narthax.

When shopping, please remember the hungry. Thank you and God Bless You!

Also, if you are in need of food, please visit our Food Pantry located in our Fellowship Hall, or speak with Fr. Michael or Kathleen Demers.

From our People's Warden

- The Summer Lunch Program began on June 25th, and has served 729 lunches as of July 25th. On Wednesdays we have been offering food items from the Food Pantry, fresh eggs (donated by Joe Cosgrove) and new children's sneakers (which were donated some time ago). This is a wonderful outreach to our neighbors. A big "thank you" to all our volunteers. The program runs through Friday, August 24th. We still need volunteers to help make bag lunches and serve them. The program runs five days a week from 11 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. Please contact me (Kathleen) if you are able to help.
- The Food Pantry is open on Sundays following church and some days during the Lunch Program. Please remember to pick up something while food shopping and put in the bin provided inside the front doors of the church.
- Volunteer Opportunities with Hospice: Constellation Hospice is looking for volunteers and will train anyone interested. The patients are at the Reservoir Rehabilitation on Bolton Street in Marlborough. They only ask for a few hours a week, at your convenience. For more information, please contact me.
- Parishioners needing rides: Some of our parishioners have a need for rides to doctors' appointments or to do errands. If you have some free time during the week and are able to help, please speak to me.

As always, remember to pray for one another. We are one big family.

Thank you!

Kathleen Demers, People's Warden

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

We are now on summer break and will resume this wonderful program in September. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program the children encounter God through developmentally appropriate presentations, centers, and prayer with a strong focus on Scripture, liturgy, and the whole of sacred history. The program helps the children develop a personal relationship with the Lord. Indeed, both students and adults find it a truly wonderful experience.

If you would like to know more about this amazing education program for children, please speak to Diana Newton Wood, Jennie O'Leary or Monica Walker.

These have been around for a while, but are always good for a chuckle:

A little girl was sitting on her grandfather's lap as he read her a bedtime story. From time to time, she would take her eyes off the book and reach up to touch his wrinkled cheek. She was alternately stroking her own cheek, then his again. Finally she spoke up, "Grandpa, did God make you?" "Yes, sweetheart," he answered, "God made me a long time ago." "Oh," she paused, "Grandpa, did God make me too?" "Yes, indeed, honey," he said, "God made you just a little while ago." Feeling their respective faces again, she observed, "God's getting better at it, isn't he?"

After a church service on Sunday morning, a young boy suddenly announced to his mother, "Mom, I've decided to become a minister when I grow up." "That's okay with us, but what made you decide that?" "Well," said the little boy, "I have to go to church on Sunday anyway, and I figure it will be more fun to stand up and yell, than to sit and listen."
