My Dear Church Family and Friends of Holy Trinity Anglican Church,

Dear Members and Friends of Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Marlborough, MA,

The Sacred Three Days (known as, "The Sacred Triduum"): The Sacred Triduum is one unfolding liturgy over three sacred days enabling Christians to share in the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Sacred Triduum is the zenith of Christian worship in this world! All Christian worship celebrated throughout the year flows out of the Sacred Triduum. There is no greater Feast for the Christian than the Sacred Triduum.

... "And taking the twelve, Jesus began to tell them what was to happen to Him, saying, 'Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be delivered [up] and they will condemn Him to death, and deliver Him to the Gentiles; and they will mock Him, and spit upon Him, and scourge Him, and kill Him; and after three days He will rise'" (St. Mark 10:32b-34).

This is the heart of the Gospel: God, in the Person of Jesus Christ, entered into His creation to confront sin and death in the flesh and to rise as Christ the Victor (i.e., Christus Victor) in the Resurrection! Christ's Victory is complete and eternal and He invites all to partake of these sacred events through worship.

Christ's eternal victory is over all that which ails us in this world: That is, He has overcome the dominion of darkness, the power of sin, the sting of death, the lies of this fleeting world, the desires of our flesh, the deceptions of the devil, spiritual warfare, betrayal, denial, and pain; emotional, physical, spiritual, as well as anxiety, depression, and much more. This is accomplished through the Incarnation (i.e., God becoming man in the Person of Jesus and confronting all the above Himself in the flesh, even unto death; see Philippians 2:5-11).

The Sacred Triduum consists of the solemn liturgy of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and the Great Vigil of Easter (the first celebration of the Resurrection sometime after sundown on Saturday evening). These three days comprise a whole, a single unfolding liturgy and entrance into the passion, death and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Maundy Thursday: The first part of the liturgy, known as Maundy Thursday, commemorates the institution of the Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood at the Last Supper, the washing of the disciples' feet (a sign of genuine Christian love, humility and service following the example of our Master), and our Lord's agony in the garden. During this Eucharist, the Priest (who by God's grace given in ordination is the living icon [i.e., image] of the one true Priest, our Lord Jesus Christ), celebrates the Holy Eucharist, washes the feet of his people (a sign of humble service after the example of Christ) and calls the people of God to keep vigil with the Lord in prayer. Maundy Thursday concludes with the stripping of the Altar, leaving the church stark and bare; symbolizing that Jesus has now been arrested and taken away. Will you be there?

Good Friday: The second part of the Triduum is Good Friday. On this day the Church, through the reading of our Lord's Passion, the prayers, and Holy Communion taken from the Reserved Sacrament (the Sacrament which remains from the Eucharist celebrated on Maundy Thursday), remembers the passion and death of our Savior Jesus Christ. We believe that Jesus Christ, God in the flesh, took upon Himself the suffering and sin of this world, and even death itself, in order to confront these evils in the flesh and be raised in eternal victory over them. He is truly Christus Victor! At our Church, a large cross will be carried in and laid upon the floor by the gate of the Sanctuary. Verses from Holy Scripture will be read, then nails will be driven into the wood of the cross. The cross is then raised and persons may come forward to venerate the wood of the cross with a kiss; a symbol of our deep sorrow for our many sins and our thanksgiving to God in Christ for our salvation.

Special Note: Between the hours of Noon and 3:00 p.m., persons are invited to keep watch before the Blessed Sacrament for one hour in response to Matthew 26:40b-41, “Jesus said to Peter [in the garden], ‘So you could not stay awake with me even for an hour? Be on guard and pray.’” The Stations of the Cross are offered on Good Friday (3:00 p.m.), marking from Scripture and tradition the events of Jesus’ judgment, suffering, death, and burial. However, the three hours (12 Noon - 3:00 p.m.) and The Stations of the Cross (3:00 p.m.) should not replace one's participation in Part 2 of the Sacred Triduum at 7:00 p.m.

The Great Vigil of the Resurrection: The Triduum concludes with the Great Vigil of Easter, celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and His eternal victory over sin and its horrible consequences, suffering and death. Will you be there?

*Will you be there when Christ offers Himself to you in the Consecrated Bread and Wine? Will you be there when He washes the feet of His disciples, giving us an example of such humble service? Will you be there to keep watch with Him in the Garden? Will you be there when they lead Him away? Will you be there when they crucify the Lord of Glory? Will you be there when He dies on the cross for your sins, loving you to the end? Will you be there when He is raised from the dead in eternal Victory over sin? When all His friends forsake Him and He even feels abandoned by His Father in Heaven, will you be there?

Your Priest & Rector,
Archdeacon (Fr.) Michael+

FR. MICHAEL'S SABBATICAL:

- Fr. Michael will be on Sabbatical from Monday, April 25 - Friday, June 17.
- Fr. Michael will be on Vacation, Conference Leave, and Continuing Education Leave from Tuesday, June 28 - Friday, August 26.

Over the past almost 18 years, Fr. Michael has been eligible to take two Sabbaticals (each of three months in duration). Such Sabbaticals allow clergy to study, seek a renewed vision for their ministry and the local church family, and to focus on their family and most importantly their relationship with the Lord. However, in almost three decades of ministry, Fr. Michael has never taken a full sabbatical. Thus, his leave will be something new for our HTAC Church family. During this time, he will also be focusing on his doctoral studies, teaching at The Saint Michael's Conference, and spending time with his family.

Fr. Shawn will be stepping up during this time. During Fr. Michael's Sabbatical, Fr. Shawn will be present three days a week at HTAC. The other clergy will also be available to the best of their availability.

This will prove to be a somewhat challenging time for us at HTAC. However, such challenges are nothing new for us at HTAC. To quote St. Julian of Norwich, "ALL WILL BE WELL. ALL WILL BE WELL. ALL MANNERS OF THINGS WILL BE WELL." Let us keep our focus on the Lord Jesus Christ and His holy Word. All will be well.

A Few Notes:

- While Fr. Michael is away, subject only to the Bishop, the Rector's Warden, in consultation with the People's Warden, is in charge of the temporal affairs of the church. In the event of an emergency, the Rector's Warden will contact Fr. Michael.
- Fr. Shawn, who is ministering two days a week at HTAC in 2022, will be ministering three days a week during May, June, and July. He will be available at HTAC on Sundays, Wednesdays, and on a day TBD.
- Fr. Shawn, working together with the Wardens, will notify the Diocesan Bishop of any pastoral or fiscal issues which need his attention.

- Should someone become seriously ill or die, Fr. Shawn will be in contact with Fr. Michael.
- Please do not call, email, or text Fr. Michael during his leave. Thank you.
- Lastly, please note that Bishop Charlie, Bishop Harvey, and Fr. Michael will be present at HTAC on Sunday, June 26. It is likely that Bishop Harvey and Fr. Michael will be present at HTAC on Sunday, June 19 as well. This week falls in between Fr. Michael's Sabbatical and Vacation.

Thank you!

Michael's sabbatical we will meet on Wednesdays at 12:45 p.m.

JESUS ENTERS JERUSALEM

The week before Jesus was crucified, He entered Jerusalem with a multitude shouting, Hosanna in the Highest. This event was prophesied centuries before His birth. Jesus came to celebrate Passover, which commemorated the Jews' deliverance from slavery. Five days before this observance, lambs were brought to Jerusalem to be chosen for sacrifice. That same day, Jesus entered the city riding on a donkey.

The prophet Zechariah had announced His coming 500 years earlier: "Behold your King is coming to you; lowly and riding on a donkey" (Zechariah 9:9).

People shouted Hosanna, quoting the words of King David in Psalm 118: 25-26 – "Lord, save us. -- Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" The people expected a coronation: instead, they witnessed redemption.

When the Jews went to worship in the Temple, they would wash in the pool of Siloam. There they saw the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy: "He will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened." (Isaiah 35: 4-5). Jesus healed a blind man by putting mud on his eyes and then sent him to that pool to wash. This man's sight was restored!

At the time when Jesus drove the money-changers from the Temple, merchants were selling and buying in the temple. Jesus turned over tables and seats, and with a voice of authority, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it a den of thieves" (Mark 11:17).

Jesus predicted the destruction of the Temple, saying, "Not one stone shall be left upon another" (Mark 13:2). The chief priests saw this as a threat. From that time on they planned to kill Him – they received help from one of Jesus' disciples who would betray Him.

As the disciples gathered to celebrate the Seder, Jesus identified His betrayer by handing Judas a piece of bread. David prophesied this in Psalm 41:9: "Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted, ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me."

While Judas carried out his betrayal, the other disciples finished the Passover meal. They sang a hymn "The Great Praise," or Hallel in Hebrew, written by David 1,000 years earlier. These words took on a new meaning as Jesus headed closer to the cross. "Bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar" (Psalm 118:27).

Jesus sang a Psalm after lifting up the cup of the new covenant of His blood: "I will take up the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it" (Psalm 118:17, 24).

Bible scholars have said that even if we didn't have Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, we would still have the Gospel in Isaiah, written centuries before Christ: "He is despised and rejected by men, a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief --- He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed ---- For He was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgressions of My people He was stricken" (Isaiah 53:3-8). Isaiah goes on in verses 10-11: "When you make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed ---He shall see the labor of His soul, and be satisfied".

When Jesus was on the cross, He took on the world's and our iniquities and saw His descendants. That means He saw you.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2022

Plans are moving along for our Vacation Bible School. It will take place the week of July 18-22. The program is Spark Studios produced by Lifeway. Our friends at First United Methodist Church will be working with us again. We are expecting another wonderful week encouraging children in their relationship with the Lord. If you know of a child who would like to attend, or if you would like to be one of our wonderful volunteers, please contact Monica Walker at walkermonica@comcast.net.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd enables children to encounter God through developmentally appropriate presentations, centers, and prayer with a strong focus on Scripture, liturgy, and the whole of sacred history. The program helps the children develop a personal relationship with the Lord. We have two groups, the older ones led by Diana Newton Wood and usually assisted by Jennie O'Leary; the younger group led by Monica Walker or Cate Fowler. On occasion, parents will assist in the Atrium as necessary for which we are very grateful. The students are interested, responsive to the Atrium presentations and often express wonderful insights.

For more information, please contact Monica Walker, Diana Newton Wood, or Jennie O'Leary.

Winter Coat Program

The winter coat program ran from November 15th through March 16th. Two hundred eighteen people received coats; many also left with coats for their families. Ninety-one coats went to Afghani refugees who relocated in this area and thirty coats went to the Southborough Food Pantry to replenish their supply. People also received hats, gloves, scarves, and warm socks.

SECOND SATURDAY

Before Covid19 and the necessity to keep social distance, each Second Saturday of the month a group would gather at church to perform various tasks that needed attention. This ranged from cleaning the pews to picking up trash outside, to small carpentry and painting jobs. It was also a time of good fellowship as we worked together to maintain our buildings. We plan on starting up this ministry again in April or May. Please watch the Enews for information on dates and tasks needing attention.

Almighty God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by thy life-giving Spirit; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit ever, one God, world without end.
